MISSIONARY TO ENGLAND

Aimee is serving in Birmingham, England and works exclusively with students at the University of Birmingham. Students in England desperately need the hope of the Gospel. A majority of the students she knows have very skewed views of Christianity and Jesus. She loves forming friendships with students and sharing what her relationship with Jesus looks like. Aimee is a self-proclaimed cat lady; or at least an unashamed cat lover. She's artsy & crafty and enjoys baking...but mostly eating. SUPPORT AIMEE
