

ASHLEY DUKART

MISSIONARY TO ENGLAND

In the Fall of 2016, Ashley will be traveling across the pond to start up a campus ministry at the University of Nottingham in England. She served as an exchange student her junior year at a university in Birmingham, England. She enjoys meeting with students and introducing them to a relationship with Jesus rather than a regimen of rules to follow. Ashley's commitment is three years to be on a start-up team with the potential for more. She loves to knit and hopes to join a society for knitting when she arrives in England. SUPPORT ASHLEY
